IN JUST HIS FIRST SEASON AS A HEAD COACH, JIMBO FISHER WON THE MOST GAMES (10) BY A FIRST-YEAR COACH IN FLORIDA STATE HISTORY AND THE THIRD-MOST BY A ROOKIE COACH IN ACC HISTORY.

Hard work was a family value in the Clarksburg, West Virginia home where Jimbo Fisher was raised; the oldest son of a coal miner and a teacher. Applying those lessons instilled at an early age served Fisher well both athletically and professionally and ultimately delivered him to Florida State University, where he was elevated to head football coach on January 5, 2010.

A veteran of 22 seasons as a college assistant, the last three as FSU's offensive coordinator, Fisher succeeded Bobby Bowden – the second winningest coach in major college football – as the Seminoles' ninth head coach and first new one in 35 years.

In less than a year, he has helped deliver the Seminoles back to a place of national prominence. Boasting a final ranking of No. 16 in the USA Today Coaches Poll, Fisher led his team to the 2010 Chick-fil-A Bowl Championship with a 26-17 win over South Carolina. His first season also included a season sweep of in-state rivals Miami and Florida, an ACC Atlantic Division title and the program's first 10-win season since 2003 as the Seminoles finished 10-4. In just his first season as a head coach, Fisher won the most games (10) by a first-year coach in Florida State history and the third-most by a rookie coach in ACC History.

Few embody the "unconquered spirit" that defines the Seminole Nation as well as Fisher, whose best attributes include: a relentless work ethic, the passionate pursuit of perfection, a keen vision for the long range future as well as a sense of place for faith, family and football. "I've been preparing for this day for a long time," Fisher said at his introductory press conference. "I've been fortunate in my life to be around a lot of successful people that I have learned many, many things from. But I think the greatest thing that I've learned from them is I have to be myself. I must do things the way I want to do them, do what got me here and remember the reasons why I am here."

Fisher has done exactly that, putting his stamp on the program. From assembling a staff of energetic, ambitious assistants, to overhauling the program's infrastructure, he has left no stone unturned. His attention to the most minute details in every aspect – from strength & conditioning, nutrition, mental training, academic support, talent evaluation and recruiting, player development and peer mentoring – has created an unshakeable foundation.

While maintaining the core values that Bowden instilled over the course of his 34 seasons in Tallahassee, Fisher has a simple explanation for the sweeping changes he has brought to the program: You don't run a business the same way today as you did 5-10 years ago.

JIMBO FISHER

Fisher has carefully crafted his vision by borrowing from two men – Nick Saban and Bowden – he worked under. Their influence, though very different, can be seen sprinkled throughout Fisher's own blueprint for success.

Yet the greatest influences in Fisher's life have been his parents, John James and Gloria Fisher. His late father, a coal miner and farmer who demanded accountability from sons Jimbo and Bryan, helped them understand the value of hard work from an early age. Those lessons extended beyond the family farm and home and onto the fields and courts as a promising young football, basketball and baseball player.

By the time Fisher reached junior high school and became the starting quarterback, he was calling plays in the huddle. And win or lose, the car rides home with his father always included a critique of what transpired on the field.

Fisher learned about tough-love from his father, but his future was also shaped by his mother, Gloria, who is in her 51st year teaching high school chemistry. It was Gloria who made sure that her son escaped from a life in the coal mines and followed his dream after an All-State career at Liberty High School.

"I always knew I was going to play or coach," Fisher said. "I've known it as far back as I can remember."

He has done both and with a high degree of success. Fisher starred for three seasons at quarterback for Salem College in West Virginia, establishing school and conference records on his way to earning All-American honors. He transferred to Samford College in Birmingham, Alabama for his final season of eligibility, where his record-setting 1987 campaign earned him NCAA Division III National Player of the Year honors.

Fisher began his coaching career at Samford and joined the staff at Auburn in 1993. Over the next 14 seasons, including stops at Cincinnati and LSU, he built a reputation as a keen play-caller whose development of quarterbacks was second-to-none in major college football. His list of standout pupils included record-setters Stan White, Patrick Nix and Dameyune Craig, who is the lone 3,000-yard passer in Auburn history. After guiding Cincinnati to one of its most prolific seasons in a one-year stint, he joined Saban's staff at LSU, where over a seven-year run, quarterbacks Josh Booty, Rohan Davey, Craig Nall, Matt Mauck, JaMarcus Russell and Matt Flynn were selected in the NFL Draft.

LSU made seven consecutive bowl appearances, won two SEC titles, posted a 70-20 record and won the 2003 BCS National Championship with Fisher as its offensive coordinator. He was a finalist for the 2001 Frank Broyles Award, presented to the nation's top assistant coach.

Fisher accepted Bobby Bowden's invitation to join the Florida State staff as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach in January 2007 and by the end of his first year, was tabbed as Bowden's successor upon retirement. The quick ascent followed a similar arc to the Seminoles' offense, which has improved statistically in each of his three seasons.

Along the way he significantly impacted FSU's recruiting, been instrumental in the development quarterbacks Christian Ponder and EJ Manuel, while setting table for his transition to the top spot. The time as a coach-in-waiting allowed him the opportunity to closely evaluate the players and program as a whole; what changes needed to be made and how to work the proper channels to get that accomplished.

As a hands-on head coach, he continues to call plays and work with the FSU quarterbacks, while maintaining a vocal presence on the field. His boundless energy and vision have enabled him to balance the off-field responsibilities which come with the job.

"History is our greatest teacher and it always will be," he said. "We're not asking to do things that have never been done here before. We're just asking to go back where they should be. With a little bit of hard work, as an old guy used to tell me, the secret to success is that there is no secret. The secret to success is hard work. Have your plan, be yourself, do what you think is right, do what got you here. That won a guy 389 games. Hopefully it will win me a bunch."

THE HIGHLIGHTS

- As FSU's offensive coordinator from 2007-09, the Seminoles improved each season to rank among the ACC leaders in total offense
- Responsible for developing FSU QB Christian Ponder who, as a second-year starter, led the ACC in total offense and passing yards per game last season
- Offensive coordinator for the 2003 National Champion LSU Tigers
- Coached three LSU players selected in the first round of the 2007 NFL Draft including No. 1 overall pick JaMarcus Russell
- Five LSU quarterbacks in seven years were NFL Draft picks (Josh Booty, Rohan Davey, Craig Nall, Matt Mauck and JaMarcus Russell)
- Tigers posted a 70-20 record and went to seven bowl games with Fisher as offensive coordinator. The 70 wins and seven bowl appearances are the most in any seven-year stretch in LSU history
- While at LSU, the Tigers won two SEC titles and played in three BCS Bowl games
- Named a finalist for the 2001 Frank Broyles Award as the nation's top assistant coach
- Coached the only two 3,000-yard passers in LSU history (Russell and Davey)
- In 1999, his offense at Cincinnati was ranked 16th in the NCAA
- Coached the only 3,000-yard passer in the history of Auburn football (Dameyune Craig)
- Led FSU to first ACC Atlantic title since 2005
- 10 wins ranks third all-time among first-year coaches in the ACC

JIMBO FISHER SECURES HISTORIC FIRST FSU VICTORY

Jimbo Fisher, the ninth coach in Florida State's 64-year football history, became just the fourth man to make a winning debut when the Seminoles opened the 2010 season with a 59-6 victory over Samford on Sept. 4. That's something a pair of College Football Hall of Famers - Bobby Bowden and Darrell Mudra - did not accomplish. Neither did Ed Williamson, Tom Nugent or Perry Moss. Prior to Fisher's opening triumph, the last coach to lead FSU to victory in his first game was Larry Jones, whose Seminoles defeated Southern Miss, 24-9 on Sept. 11, 1971.

THROUGH 13 GAMES ...

The Seminoles have notched nine regular season victories for the first time since the 2003 season... Along the way under Fisher's direction, FSU has won at least seven games and gained bowl eligibility for a 29th consecutive season - the longest active streak in the nation and second all-time to Nebraska's 35... Fisher's nine-win total is the most by a first-year coach in Florida State history and the third-most by a rookie coach in ACC history,

ASSISTANT COACHES/SUPPORT STAFF

JAMES COLEY

JAMES COLEY

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR/TEs

- Florida State enters his fourth season with the Seminoles and the seventh at the collegiate level. He stepped into the offensive coordinator position, while retaining his duties as the tight ends coach in 2010.
- Coley had previous experience as a college offensive coordinator, having held that post at Florida International in 2007. He also spent six seasons in the Miami high school ranks, including a three-year run as offensive coordinator at Norland, which won a state title. Coley served two years as a graduate assistant at LSU, working alongside offensive coordinator Jimbo Fisher. He followed that with a two-year stint on Nick Saban's Miami Dolphins staff as an offensive assistant.
- As the recruiting coordinator in 2008 and 2009, Coley had been instrumental in the Seminoles landing back-to-back Top 10 signing classes, which have helped re-stock FSU's talent pool.
- Coley's work on the field has been instrumental in bringing the tight end position back to a place of prominence for the Seminoles.

MARK STOOPS

MARK STOOPS

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR/DBs

- Mark Stoops is in his 22nd season of coaching and second season as Florida State's defensive coordinator and secondary coach. Hired by Jimbo Fisher in January 2010 to replace the venerable Mickey Andrews, Stoops came to FSU from Arizona, where he spent the six seasons serving the Wildcats in the same capacity under his head coaching brother Mike Stoops. He is also the brother of Oklahoma head coach Bob Stoops.
- In his first season at Florida State, he installed a system that produced a tie for the most sacks in the nation (48). FSU was also tough to score on in 2010 as the Seminoles ranked No. 20 in scoring defense allowing just 19.6 points per game. FSU finished ranked 42nd in total defense nationally, which was 66 spots higher than what FSU finished the season before.
- Stoops built an impressive resume by developing nationally elite units, especially in the secondary. Prior to his six-year run at Arizona, he spent three seasons at the University of Miami as the secondary coach. His '02 and '03 units led the nation in pass defense, while the '01 Hurricanes won the national championship.

RICK TRICKETT

RICK TRICKETT

ASST. HEAD COACH/OL

- Rick Trickett is in his fifth season at Florida State and his 39th overall as one of the nation's most respected offensive line coaches. Nationally recognized for his ability to identify, recruit and develop talent, he has transformed the Seminoles' offensive line into one of the finest units in the nation.
- Evolving from the nation's youngest offensive line among Football Bowl Subdivision teams in 2008, the Seminoles returned the same five starters in 2010. With a combined 142 career starts back from the most productive offensive season (421.4 ypg) since 2001. FSU has improved its total offense in each of Trickett's first three seasons.
- Has built enough depth within the offensive line ranks to withstand a handful of injuries to the 2010 unit. The Seminoles have had to use six different starting offensive line combinations without a dramatic fall-off in offensive production, thanks to his cross-position training.
- In 2010, senior guard Rodney Hudson and center Ryan McMahon earned All-ACC honors.
- Hudson was a consensus All-America selection in 2010 and won the ACC's Jacobs Blocking Award for the second straight season.

GREG HUDSON

ASST. HEAD COACH/LBs

- Greg Hudson began his 21st season of collegiate coaching and enters his second season as Florida State's assistant head coach and linebackers coach in 2011 after spending five seasons as defensive coordinator/linebackers coach at East Carolina. Along the way, Hudson has made coaching stops at Minnesota, Cincinnati and Connecticut. He was on the Cincinnati staff when FSU coach Jimbo Fisher was the Bearcats' offensive coordinator in 1999.
- During his tenure at East Carolina, where he worked for one-time FSU graduate assistant Skip Holtz, the Pirates set new standards for excellence. ECU posted four consecutive winning seasons for the first time in 30 years and made four consecutive bowl appearances for the first time in school history. The Pirates also became the first team to win consecutive Conference USA championship games, pulling off the feat in 2008 and 2009.
- Hudson has been instrumental in the development of FSU's top two leading tacklers in 2010 in linebackers Nigel Bradham (93 tackles) and Kendall Smith (91 tackles).

GREG HUDSON

EDDIE GRAN

ASSOC. HEAD COACH/RBs/SPECIAL TEAMS

- Eddie Gran is in his 25th season of collegiate coaching and in his second season at Florida State, where he serves as associate head coach, tutoring the running backs and coordinating special teams. Gran spent 11 seasons as a running backs coach and special teams coordinator in the SEC, including 10 years at Auburn, followed by last season's stop at Tennessee.
- Gran's record for developing backfield talent is storied. During his 14 seasons as the assistant to Tommy Tuberville at Ole Miss and Auburn, he sent eight ball carriers on to the NFL, including former Tigers Carnell Williams, Ronnie Brown, Rudi Johnson, Brandon Jacobs, Heath Evans and Kenny Irons. They were preceded by former Rebels Deuce McCallister and John Avery.
- Tennessee's Mario Hardesty (1,345 yds) added his name to the lengthy list of 1,000-yard rushers Gran has worked with over the course of his career in '09. Hardesty was a second-round draft pick of the Cleveland Browns in 2010. He was selected one slot after Auburn's Ben Tate (Houston Texans), whom Gran coached in 2008.

DAMEYUNE CRAIG

DAMEYUNE CRAIG

QUARTERBACKS/RECRUITING

- Dameyune Craig is in his eighth season as a college coach and second season at Florida State following a two-year run at South Alabama where he directed the wide receivers for Joey Jones. Jones made Craig his first hire when he was charged with starting the Jaguars' football program, which played its first season in 2009 and is in the process of becoming a Football Championship Subdivision program.
- With the Seminoles, Craig has been charged with coordinating the recruiting efforts and will also assist Fisher instructing the quarterbacks. Like FSU veterans Christian Ponder and EJ Manuel, Craig was an exceptional student-athlete on and off the field, earning Academic All-SEC honors as a senior at Auburn in 2007.
- No stranger to first-year FSU head coach Jimbo Fisher, Craig played quarterback under Fisher's watchful eyes for four seasons at Auburn. He still holds numerous Auburn passing records, including completions (216) and passing yards (3,227) in a season. The two were reunited at LSU when Craig began his coaching career in earnest as an offensive graduate assistant on Nick Saban's staff, which included Fisher as the offensive coordinator.

LAWRENCE DAWSEY PASSING GAME COORDINATOR/WRs

- Lawrence Dawsey is in his fifth season on the FSU staff, adding passing game coordinator duties to his responsibilities as FSU's receivers coach. The additional duty is a nod to Dawsey's budding, eight-year career on the sideline, where he has already established himself as an outstanding recruiter.
- Dawsey was an integral part of the Seminoles football dynasty as a player. His four seasons at wide receiver coincided with the first four 10-win, top-five poll finishes by FSU. As a player, he was known for his work ethic, accountability, precision route-running, down-field blocking and the ability to rise to the occasion in big games. Those are the same qualities he is charged with imparting on the Seminoles receiver corps.
- Florida State's receivers have prospered under Dawsey's direction. So far in 2010, four different receivers have at least 30 receptions and at least 400 receiving yards - Bert Reed (56 catches, 589 yards); Taiwan Easterling (41 receptions (541 yards); Willie Haulstead (36 catches, 573 yards) and Rodney Smith (30 catches, 436 yards).

D.J. ELIOT DEFENSIVE ENDS

- Though D.J. Eliot enters his 14th season of collegiate coaching, the Seminoles' defensive ends coach is the youngest member of Jimbo Fisher's staff entering his second season at FSU. Eliot arrived in Tallahassee from Rice, where he spent three seasons as the recruiting coordinator and defensive line coach.
- At Rice, Eliot had oversight of the recruiting process; a challenge given the schools' stringent academic standards.
- Eliot was a member of the 2008 Rice staff which guided the Owls to a 10-3 record, capped by a Texas Bowl victory over Western Michigan. It was the program's first 10-win season since 1949 and first bowl triumph since the 1950 Cotton Bowl.
- Eliot has been instrumental in the development of sophomore Brandon Jenkins who ranked second nationally in sacks (13) and ninth nationally in tackles for loss (19.5).
- He and Odell Haggins coach one of the nation's top defensive fronts. The Seminoles tied for the lead among all FBS schools with 48 sacks in 2010.

ODELL HAGGINS DEFENSIVE LINE

- Odell Haggins is in his 18th season as an assistant coach at Florida State, where he starred on the defensive line from 1986-89. Haggins, who coaches the interior defensive line, is the longest tenured member of the FSU staff. He began his career as a tight ends/offensive line coach in 1994 with the Seminoles and took over the interior defensive line duties in 1996, where he has remained a fixture.
- Named one of the six best defensive line coaches in college football by CBS Sports columnist Dennis Dodd in 2008, Haggins has repeatedly turned out top-flight talent. Since the 2000 season he has coached eight defensive tackles that have been selected in the NFL Draft.
- The litany of standouts that Haggins has coached includes four first round draft picks: Brodrick Bunkley (2006), Travis Johnson (2005), Corey Simon (2000) and Andre Wadsworth (1998).
- The Seminoles tied for the lead among all FBS schools with 48 sacks in 2010.

VIC VILORIA STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

- Vic Vilorio joined Florida State football coach Jimbo Fisher's staff in January 2010 from SMU - his alma mater - where he spent the previous three seasons as the head strength & conditioning coach.
- Vilorio spent the previous three years as an assistant strength coach at LSU under the supervision of Tom Moffitt, working with the Tigers' nationally-ranked football and baseball programs, as well as the swimming and golf teams.
- A disciple of renowned weightlifting coach Gayle Hatch, Vilorio endorses the "Hatch System" which develops functional and explosive strength in players through the use of free weights, plyometrics and jumping drills.
- Vilorio was a four-year letter winner at linebacker for SMU and a three-time member of the All-Western Athletic Conference team. He led the Mustangs in tackles each of final three seasons and recorded at least 10 tackles in 21 games over the course of his career. He wrapped up his playing career as a member of the NFL Europe's Scottish Claymores.
- Vilorio holds his certification through USA Weightlifting.

EJ MANUEL

6-5, 234, Jr., QB

Virginia Beach, Va.

Bayside HS

ABOUT MANUEL ...

2010: Built on his stint as a four-game starter in 2009, making 10 appearances with starts against Clemson and Virginia Tech in the ACC Championship game...Came on in relief in the second quarter of the Chick-fil-A Bowl and helped guide the 'Noles to a 26-17 win over South Carolina, which included 7-yard TD pass to Taiwan Easterling with just over five minutes to play to cap off a 13-play, 63-yard drive in which proved to be the game-clinching moment...boasts a 4-2 record as the starter, including what amounted to an elimination game victory over Clemson while filling in for senior Christian Ponder...led the Seminoles in completion percentage (69.9) and passing efficiency (153.25)...ran for a career-high 71 yards and a touchdown against Clemson in a 16-13 win, eclipsing his previous high of 70 yards in his Gator Bowl MVP performance against West Virginia...also passed for 210 yards in the win over the Tigers, helping him earn ACC Offensive Back of the Week honors...passed for a career-high 288 yards (23-31) in the ACC Championship game loss to Virginia Tech...in between he helped run the final 7:35 off the clock against Florida, rushing for 27 yards in the process...passed for 861 yards and four TDs and added 170 rushing yards and one TD ... Named to the All-ACC Academic Football Team.

Wyncote, Pa.

Roman Catholic HS

ABOUT MOODY ...

2010: A first-year starter at free safety, Moody emerged as a physical presence on the back line of the Seminoles' defense...started each of the last 12 games after sitting out the opener with an injury but closed the season in impressive fashion...ranked third on the team with 79 tackles, which included 4.0 tackles for loss and 0.5 sacks...filled his stat line with one interception, two pass breakups, a fumble recovery and a forced fumble...Moody's 36-yard fumble return to the Miami 1-yard line set up a one-play TD drive which gave the 'Noles a 14-0 lead over Miami...over the final four games – Maryland, Florida, Virginia Tech and South Carolina – Moody amassed 40 tackles...recorded a career-high 13 tackles at Maryland, where he also sealed the 30-16 victory by returning his first career interception 96 yards for a touchdown in the waning seconds – the fourth-longest in school history. His pick-six killed the Terps' potential game-tying touchdown drive and helped earn him a share of ACC Defensive Back of the Week honors...followed up with eight tackles and a forced fumble against Florida, then tacked on a game-high 12 tackles against the Hokies in the ACC Championship game and added seven tackles and a half sack against South Carolina in the Chick-fil-A Bowl.

NO. 20 FLORIDA STATE 59, SAMFORD 6

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. - Quarterback Christian Ponder helped open the Jimbo Fisher era in style, completing 12 of 14 passes for 167 yards and four first half touchdowns in a 59-6 romp. Fisher, FSU's first new coach in 35 seasons, was credited with the most lopsided debut victory in school history. Seven different Seminoles scored touchdowns against the FCS school that Fisher once quarterbacked. Ty Jones rushed for 107 yards on eight carries as No. 20 FSU piled up 481 total yards. The 'Noles scored a school record 35 second quarter points and led 45-3 at the half, including Greg Reid's 74-yard punt return for a TD. Ponder, playing for the first time since November shoulder surgery, sat out the second half while EJ Manuel went 10 of 13 for 129 yards through the air.

NO. 10 OKLAHOMA 47, NO. 17 FLORIDA STATE 17

NORMAN, Okla. - The 17th-ranked Seminoles didn't have to wait long for their first test of the season as a trip to No. 10 Oklahoma quickly revealed that there was still much work to be done. FSU answered the Sooners game-opening touchdown drive with an impressive 11-play, 70-yard march, culminating with Jermaine Thomas' 1-yard touchdown run. It would prove to be one of the lone highlights on a day when the Sooners rolled up 487 yards - 394 through the air - in a 47-17 victory. FSU's retooled defense had no answer for OU quarterback Landry Jones, who tossed four touchdown passes. The Seminoles scored 10 fourth quarter points, aided by sophomore kicker Dustin Hopkins' career-high matching 52-yard field goal and EJ Manuel's 47-yard touchdown pass to Taiwan Easterling on the final play of the game.

FLORIDA STATE 34, BYU 10

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. - FSU quickly established its reputation for being able to bounce back with a thoroughly dominating performance on both sides of the football against Brigham Young at Doak Campbell Stadium. Defensive coordinator Mark Stoops' unit limited the usually-prolific Cougars to just 191 total yards in a 34-10 victory. The Seminoles registered eight quarterback sacks, including two by emerging sophomore end Brandon Jenkins. FSU forced two turnovers and won the field position game with strong special teams play. Christian Ponder threw for one touchdown and rushed for another, while reserve tailback Chris Thompson ran for a career-high 123 yards, highlighted by his 83-yard dash. FSU leaned on its rushing attack, which produced 278 yards.

FLORIDA STATE 31, WAKE FOREST 0

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. - Limiting an opponent to fewer than 200 yards for a second consecutive week, Florida State's defense pitched its first shutout since 2008, throttling Wake Forest 31-0 at Doak Campbell Stadium. The Seminoles snapped a two-game losing streak to the Demon Deacons in Tallahassee by registering their first ACC shutout since 2003. Defensive end Brandon Jenkins led the charge with 3.5 tackles for loss and two of FSU's six sacks on the day. Wake Forest managed just 185 total yards – 82 passing – and 12 first downs. Christian Ponder threw for 243 yards, including two TDs to sophomore Willie Haulstead, and rushed for a score. Taiwan Easterling had a career-high 112 receiving yards.

FLORIDA STATE 34, VIRGINIA 14

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va. -- The Seminoles extended their streak of consecutive shutout quarters to eight – their longest in 30 years - while building a 27-0 halftime cushion on the road at Virginia. Florida State cruised to a 34-14 victory against the Cavaliers behind yet another dominant rushing performance. Jermaine Thomas ran for a season-high 122 yards and two touchdowns as the 'Noles amassed 256 on the ground; their third consecutive game over 200 yards. FSU also eclipsed the 30-point scoring standard for the third straight time, a first since 2004. Despite a second half lapse, the Seminoles' defense was largely impressive, limiting the Cavaliers to 25 rushing yards on 26 carries. The 'Noles registered six sacks, continuing to build on their national lead, while cornerback Greg Reid intercepted two passes.

MIAMI GARDENS, Fla. - Jimbo Fisher celebrated his 45th birthday by blowing out more than candles, as the No. 23 Seminoles provided their rookie coach with his first signature victory, 45-14 over No. 13 Miami at Sun Life Stadium. The Seminoles bolted to a 21-0 lead behind three touchdowns from tailback Jermaine Thomas in the first 25 minutes of action. Thomas scored on a 17-yard pass from Christian Ponder, a 1-yard run - set up by safety Nick Moody's long fumble return to start the second quarter - and a 6-yard run. FSU led 24-7 at the break and 31-7 after Lonnie Pryor weaved his way for a 16-yard scoring run to start the second half. Miami scored the next 10 points before the 'Noles iced the game on Ponder's 18-yard TD pass to Rodney Smith and Chris Thompson's 90-yard scoring dash.

NO. 16 FLORIDA STATE 24, BOSTON COLLEGE 19

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. - On a day when the offense struggled to find its groove, 16th-ranked Florida State turned to its defense and special teams to grind out a 24-19 victory over Boston College, snapping a two-game losing streak against the Eagles. Junior receiver Bert Reed's 42-yard scoring dash on an end around with 10:50 remaining provided the 'Noles with the decisive points, but it was the defense that carried the day, limiting the Eagles to four field goals. FSU held BC to minus-two yards on 18 snaps across the 50-yard line. Punter Shawn Powell punted five times for a season-best 50.8 yard average – and a 48.4 yard net – to keep the Eagles hemmed in all day. Those efforts helped withstand a three-interception day by quarterback Christian Ponder, who played through the game despite injuring his elbow.

NC STATE 28, NO. 16 FLORIDA STATE 24

RALEIGH, N.C. - The Seminoles saw their five-game winning streak come to a close on the doorstep to victory as NC State rallied from a 21-7 halftime deficit for a 28-24, Thursday night victory at Carter-Finley Stadium. Christian Ponder drove the 'Noles the length of the field to the Wolfpack 4-yard line with less than a minute to play before losing a fumble on a collision with teammate Ty Jones. Ponder matched NC State quarterback Russell Wilson's three TD runs with two of his own and an 11-yard pass to Willie Haulstead before watching the game slip away. Jones ran for 108 yards in defeat, while Bert Reed and Haulstead combined for 10 receptions for 130 yards. Wilson's 1-yard TD pass to tight end George Bryan on fourth down with 2:40 remaining negated three consecutive goal line stops by the FSU defense.

NORTH CAROLINA 37, NO. 24 FLORIDA STATE 35

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. - For the second consecutive week the Seminoles suffered a heart-breaking defeat when Dustin Hopkins was wide right on a 40-yard field goal attempt with seven seconds remaining in a 37-35 loss at home to North Carolina. Greg Reid's 50-yard kickoff return in response to Casey Barth's go-ahead field goal gave the Seminoles life on a night when UNC quarterback T.J. Yates passed for a school-record 439 yards and three TDs. Christian Ponder completed 24 of 35 attempts for a season-high 264 yards and three touchdowns, including 10 connections with Willie Haulstead for 154 yards. FSU registered five sacks, including two more from end Brandon Jenkins, while linebacker Nigel Bradham contributed a team-high 10 tackles to the cause.

FLORIDA STATE 16, CLEMSON 13

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. - Dustin Hopkins helped deliver the Seminoles the come-from-behind victory which had eluded them in consecutive weeks. The sophomore kicking sensation atoned for his game-ending miss against UNC by converting a career-long 55-yard field goal as time expired in a 16-13 victory over Clemson, which kept FSU's ACC Atlantic Division hopes alive. It was the longest walk-off winning field goal in ACC history. EJ Manuel, who started in place of ailing senior quarterback Christian Ponder, completed 15 of 24 attempts for 210 yards and added a team-high 71 rushing yards, including an 8-yard touchdown run with 10:08 to play for FSU's first lead. Sophomore receiver Rodney Smith set a career-high with 121 yards on four receptions and cornerback Xavier Rhodes' in the fourth quarter loomed large.

NO. 25 FLORIDA STATE 30, MARYLAND 16

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - Facing elimination in the ACC Atlantic Division race for a second consecutive week, the 25th-ranked Seminoles overcame a 16-13 deficit late in the third quarter for a 30-16 road win at Maryland. Sophomore safety Nick Moody's interception and 96-yard return for a touchdown in the final minute eliminated the Terrapins from the race. Moody, who had a career-high 13 tackles, snuffed Maryland's final drive deep into FSU territory. Christian Ponder returned to the lineup and threw for 170 yards, including a 44-yard scoring strike to Bert Reed which gave the 'Noles a 20-16 lead they would not relinquish. Punter Shawn Powell's fake punt shovel pass to Mike Harris went for 33 yards and set up Dustin Hopkins' 34-yard field goal with 1:34 to play as FSU closed out ACC play with a 6-2 record.

NO. 23 FLORIDA STATE 31, FLORIDA 7

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. - Christian Ponder and the No. 23 'Noles celebrated Senior Day with an emotionally-charged, streak-snapping, 31-7 rout of rival Florida. FSU secured its ninth victory of the year and first "state championship" since 1999. Ponder completed 16 of 24 attempts for 221 yards and three touchdowns, while the defense forced four turnovers, ending the rival Gators' six-game series winning streak. The Seminoles limited the Gators to 64 passing yards, forced five fumbles –recovering three – and added an interception in the lopsided victory in front of 82,324 Doak Campbell Stadium fans. Mike Harris collected a momentum-shifting interception, while Brandon Jenkins recorded a pair of sacks. As the Seminoles and their fans celebrated wildly, Maryland finished off a 38-31 upset of NC State to hand FSU the ACC Atlantic title.

NO. 12 VIRGINIA TECH 44,
NO. 20 FLORIDA STATE 33

CHARLOTTE, N.C. - In a rematch of the inaugural 2005 ACC Championship Game, Florida State traveled to Charlotte, N.C. to take on surging Virginia Tech at Bank of America Stadium. The 12th-ranked Hokies carried a 10-game winning streak into the contest behind recently-anointed ACC Player of the Year, quarterback Tyrod Taylor. The 20th-ranked Seminoles, once again without senior quarterback Christian Ponder, sent EJ Manuel into the fray. Despite a career-high 288-yard performance by Manuel, the Hokies prevailed 44-33 behind Taylor's MVP performance. Virginia Tech's senior dual-threat threw for 263 yards and three touchdowns and added a 5-yard touchdown run early in the fourth quarter to help seal the deal on a frigid night. The Hokies scored the first 14 points of the second half to open up an insurmountable 35-17 lead.

GAME 14 (CHICK-FIL-A BOWL)
NO. 20 FLORIDA STATE 26,
NO. 23 SOUTH CAROLINA 17

ATLANTA, GA. - EJ Manuel came on in relief for injured starting quarterback Christian Ponder and helped guide the No. 23 Florida State football to a 26-17 win over No. 20 South Carolina in the 2010 Chick-fil-A Bowl at the Georgia Dome in Atlanta. His seven-yard touchdown pass to Taiwan Easterling with just over five minutes to play capped off a fantastic 13-play, 63-yard drive in what would prove to be the game-clinching moment. The Seminoles forced offensive guru/head coach Steve Spurrier's South Carolina (9-5) team into five turnovers; including four in the first half. For the 'Noles (10-4), cornerback Greg Reid played a memorable game as he helped cap off the first year of the regime of another head coach known for his offensive mind: Jimbo Fisher. Fisher saw Reid knock out Gamecocks freshman star Marcus Lattimore early in the first quarter and then strip the ball from NFL-bound receiver Alshon Jeffery later on. He saw his team get the necessary stops to make him the first Seminoles coach to capture 10 wins in year No. 1. He also saw his protégé, Manuel, avoid the rush and improvise before finding Easterling for that touchdown -- despite being held to just 85 total yards passing. Manuel was 11-of-15 on the night. Sophomore tailback Chris Thompson carried the load and finished the night with 147 yards on 25 carries with one touchdown. Manuel was able
